

A little bit about me, I started with Penn State University on March 17th, 2022, as an Accountant Assistant with Donor and Member Services and currently hold that position.

I am married and have a 2-year-old daughter Penelope.

I enjoy spending time with my family, playing boardgames, gardening (specifically vegetables), canning and, most of all, reading!